

13th INTERNATIONAL ANGLO-INDIAN REUNION 2026

REUNION BROCHURE FOR INDIAN DELEGATES

Come back to familiar shores...

Invitation

Dear Fellow Anglo-Indians,

We once again would urge you to return to familiar shores in 2026 – Incredible India – with all that this entails – emotional attachment to sights, sounds, food, culture, camaraderie, family and friends, schools and roots – is again being offered to you in a one week package of Coming Home at REUNION 13 in Cochin now Kochi, Kerala, India.

Kerala is remembered as the point where the first Europeans landed on Indian shores and even today Kerala can account for the largest concentration of Anglo-Indians among the other Indian States. Cochin has always been a centre of Anglo-Indian culture and identity since the first settlements of the Europeans in India.

This Brochure gives a perspective of Programmes and Dates – Sunday 11th January, 2026 to Saturday 17th January, 2026.

Early January is the best time of the year to be in Cochin – the festive season still lingers, the weather is at its pleasant best and after the Reunion, it is still the best time to visit places in South India and the neighbourhood. These dates have also been chosen so that before the Reunion you will have time to spend Christmas and New Year with your families / friends in your old home towns across the country.

Anglo Indians from all over India and the Diaspora will find Cochin offering you the best of hospitality at affordable rates. The Reunion programme will broadly cater to all pockets – and nowhere else will you find the warmth and acceptance as in Cochin, India.

Come back to familiar shores in 2026

Dr. Charles Dias

President

The Federation of Anglo-Indian Associations in India

13th INTERNATIONAL ANGLO-INDIAN REUNION 2026

Celebrating the land of our origin

There has been resurgence in celebrating Anglo-Indian culture in the 21st Century, in the form of the International Anglo-Indian Reunions. There have been twelve reunions with the latest being held in March 2024 in Canberra where the attendance was low and people expressed the desire to hold Reunions in India so that more people would be encouraged to attend.

Coming Home to India

India and more specifically Kochi would like to play host in the true Indian spirit to the 13th International Anglo-Indian Reunion in 2026.

Coming to India will be a pleasant experience, a tug at the heart strings, a walk down memory lane, a second home coming or a celebration of the memories of the era gone by but for all who do decide to make it to India it will be a visit to "Familiar shores".

Why Cochin now Kochi in India

Steeped in history of a bygone era Cochin was the first point of entry of those who came from Europe the then hub of the Portuguese and later Dutch and British trade now has a history and culture familiar to many an Anglo-Indians.

Kochi is a cosmopolitan city and the people are warm, friendly and very hospitable. They are tolerant and adaptable. The century old values of respect for elders, family traditions, customs and more... still form the basis of life and living.

The Federation Of Anglo-Indian Associations in India bid for and has been selected by the International Anglo-Indian Federation to host the 13th International Anglo-Indian Reunion in Kochi India in 2026 and it is with pride that an organising committee has been formed of prominent Anglo-Indians from the State of Kerala and a larger body from across the partners of the Federation to advise and give direction to the event.
